The most important thing I learned/experienced today was…
to consider the entire picture of family ex-grandma think outside the box sometimes a solution is easy.
Parental role and siblings should be appreciative.
The overall information that was shared was interesting and will be useful in my involment with families.
Acknowledgment I add on.
Gary was such an interesting man.
Understanding family context Gary's website. It reinforced stems theroigcally understanding of families
The nature of special needs and how to deal with them

I can use this information in my workplace to…
share with my co-workers practice with families.
Work better with my clients and families.
Continue to support clients/families. Ideas for sibling support.
Help families to work with all their children together.
Assist families that I work with to better communicate with their children.
Yes I saw new paths and understandings when dealing with children with special needs in a family.
Yes to support families.
Support families with children with special needs.
Yes
