

Milton Parent Education Network Evaluation

"Raising Awesome Kids.... The role of self-esteem, character & discipline - April 28 2011 Speaker: Gary Direnfeld

The Milton Parent Education Network provides learning opportunities for parents and caregivers in Milton. Please complete this evaluation to help plan for future events.

37 respondents

1. The first three digits of my postal code are:

L9T - 28 L7G - 3 L6R - 1 L6M - 1 LOP - 1 L5M - 1

2. My children are aged:

0-6 yrs - 45 7-13 yrs - 22 14+ yrs - 7

3. I heard about this event from: (Please check those that apply.)

Friends - 7 Website - 5
School - 9 Community sign boards - 2
Halton Parenting Directory - 2 Email - 5
Local newspaper - 0
Community agency: Oxford - 2 ROCK - 2
Other: HaltonParents Twitter - 1 Milton Resource Centre - 5

4. What did you like most about this presentation?

- Everything
- Surveying the audience and answering their questions & needs
- Techniques well explained
- Funny & informative
- The way it was presented, informal, informative and fun
- Concrete examples, great presenter, very knowledgeable, likes that he asked about our needs
- Very client-centered! Excellent presentation, very animated
- How Gary was able to make the session flow, even with all the interruptions
- Everything but what I didn't like
- Interactive nature
- Energy of presenter, simple ideas
- Gary's knowledge and enthusiasm
- The speaker

- It was helpful, interactive session - I can relate to what the presenter was saying, I got more answers than the questions I asked
- Gary is a joy to listen to - great tips & information
- To the point on topics discussed
- No reading from prepared material
- Open discussion & personal examples
- You made it real, zero strict presentation made a lot of sense by answering real questions
- Liked the specific examples
- Great speaker, great content!
- Humour
- Interactive, good role modelling, good overview, good example about self-esteem & communication
- The way that Gary presented the info
- I learn about new programs for my kids and myself too. It's my first time here and this is very interesting - thank you very much
- Questions at beginning to tailor presentation, the explanations and details
- It was real, it was simple, it made sense
- The topics and the presenter
- The point about not worrying so
- Real life examples of situations
- The questions I had were directly answered. I am thrilled to walk out with concrete tools!
- The focus on not to "over-react" and not to worry too much about making your kids happy
- How to deal with children
- Everything

5. What did you like least about this presentation?

- The time was short - x 12
- Lengthy intro
- Interruptions of questions
- Maybe ask what we want to learn from one person, then answer it then ask second question and answer it
- All the parents giving such details about their family issues
- Questions being ignored, not interruptions allowed
- Broadness of ages although, he did a great job of making the ideas relate to all ages
- Less time
- Did not cover many of the concerns parents outlined at commencement of talk

Available times for involvement:

- During the day
- Evenings
- Weekend
- Other:

11. We are considering partnering with Halton Hills Parent Education Network for future events. Would you attend an event if it was located : Circle one,

- Acton yes - 3 no - 16
- Georgetown yes - 6 no - 16

Personal information on this form is collected pursuant to Section 5 of the Health Protection and Promotion Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.H-7 and will be used for planning Community Health Services in Halton. Questions about the collection of your personal information should be addressed to the Freedom of Information and Privacy Coordinator, 1151 Bronte Road, Oakville, ON L6M 3L1, 905-825-6000.

Thank you for your support!